Gotham, 2007. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: American Bandhas everything going for it, from tempo to heart to the grand bittersweet finale. What a gift for readers: a pitch-perfect tribute to kids and song and community. Madeleine Blais, Pulitzer Prize winner and author of In These Girls, Hope Is a Muscle "As a spats-hating, apathetic, marching-band clarinetist in high school, I didn't recognize the driven and talented Concord High musicians who train harder than the football players at whose games they perform. American Bandleads us through the championship season of Elkhart, Indianas Marching Minutemen. But most importantly, author Kristen Laine shows that in the heart of the heart of the country, so- called quaint notions like community and personal excellence are alive and kicking." Cathy Day, author of The Circus in Winter "Through the graceful narration of Kristen Laine, a season of a high school band becomes the provocative story of young men and women grappling with issues of friendships, ambition, and spirituality. American Bandtransports us to the real America that so many journalists simply fly over. It makes us care us care deeply about the parents, kids and teachers who come together to create a sense of community in these fast-changing times." David L. Marcus, author of What It Takes to...
