RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 422 pages. LC Number: KF27 . E5527 2007 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)226049721 Subject: Environmental protection -- United States -- Finance. Excerpt: . . . 7 positive solutions and engine for economic growth and doing those together, and not just with a heavy hand of ones that works to threaten or destroy our local economy as moving toward these. We all want, and our primary purpose should be looking at public health but that also has to partner with making sure we do not de-destroy our industries and our jobs in the meantime. I think all the public can agree on that, and sometimes I have questioned if EPA has all those things in mind too. I hope it does but I think we do best when we work together and we do worse when we work apart. So given that case, as we work to recognize that we are going to still need coal energy, we are going to still need to manufacture in the United States, we should be looking at ways to help transition from the legacy as opposed to just shutting it down. I suppose we could clean all the air and streams in America if we shut down our industry but then we would find everyone else struggling to even survive from there. So let us hope that all the aspects of this budg-et and all the working towards will be money well spend and money that is multiplied by working together with business and industry, communities and public health to clean our air, clean our water, cleanup our Brownfields by making these positive economic engines in place that we can be proud of. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. YNN Mr. W. Thank you. As a...
