And the Raven Smiled

By Garner Buchanan

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .And the Raven Smiled is many stories in one. In a World War II setting, it is a page-turning adventure. Like on stormy seas, the tale rolls nonstop from one crisis to another. It is also a study in the clash of cultures, white and Tlingit Indian. But it is yet more: The characters are all very real and Alaskan unique. You will grow to love them and not want to quit reading and leave them. Jim McGraham, as Natalya describes him: You are like a kid on a rocky shore, jumping from boulder to boulder, and then you miss, fall into the surf, and discover you can't swim. You have no back-up defenses. Jim knows that Natalya Solomon has some terrible secret in her past. Did she murder someone? The only person I was trying to kill was me, she tells Jim. We finally share in her shame, and love her even more. The Raven, as she grows from beached derelict into a working boat, reveals her own identity and quirks. The year is nineteen-forty. Alaska...
