Tyler - Dear Sir: At a regular meeting of the Church, the Church voted to instruct the Clerk of the Church to request a copy of the Sermon preached by you at the Funeral of Rev. Lewis Sabin, D. D., for publication. In accordance with that vote, I now request a copy of the Sermon preached by you at the Funeral of Rev. Lewis Sabin, D. D., for publication. We feel that its publication will not only give Dr. Sabin s numerous friends much satisfaction, but that it will be the means of much good. Mr. A. H. Merriam, Clerk of the Trinitarian Church in Templeton - Dear Sir: The Sermon preached at the Funeral of Rev. Dr. Sabin, of which the Church so long under his pastoral care request a copy for publication, was written under an unusual pressure of private and public duties, and is very far from coming up to my conception of the subject and the occasion. But I do not feel at liberty to disregard the wishes of the Church, especially when accompanied with an expression of their belief that it will not only give Dr. Sabin s numerous friends much satisfaction, but will also be the means of much good. As soon, therefore, as I can find time so far to revise the manuscript as to make it legible, I will send a copy for publication, hoping that it may accomplish, in some measure, the end for which it was asked.
