We are not content to say, I believe ; we must say, I know. The faith that clings to an unseen support must either grow stronger or weaker, day by day. It is to strengthen the faith of man in the unfailing foundation and source of the Bible that this little volume is given to the public. If it shall enable some fainting soul to feel the eternal Rock of Ages under his feet, or cause his faith to rise in triumph so that he may shout with Paul: I know in whom I have believed, it will not go forth in vain. Witnesses are shockingly in the habit of saying upon the witness stand: I don t know, as I didn t see, erroneously believing that they must see in order to know. Perhaps they little dream that most of the knowledge they possess was acquired through other sources than that of sight. Neither is vision the surest source of knowledge, for it is easily imposed upon. Nor are we dependent upon the five senses for all of our knowledge. How many things do we know that we have never seen, heard, tasted, smelt nor felt; yet we know them quite as well! Do you have to possess some physical knowledge of the center of the earth to know that it exists? Do you have to see or feel all the straight sticks...
