Excerpt: . the issues against the plaintiff, and rendered judgment accordingly, dismissing plaintiff s petition, from which judgment the plaintiff, after an unsuccessful motion for new trial and re-hearing, appealed to this court. From the foregoing statement it will be seen that there are three parties to the controversy besides the defendant, James: (1) the devisees in remainder of the testator, who are represented by the plaintiff; (2) the heirs at law of his widow, who are represented by her administrator; and (3) the defendant, Kate O. Anderson, who claims the fund in question to the extent of $2,500, by virtue of the written assignment from Mrs. Hall, to secure her for an indebtedness on her part to that amount. The solution of the question, it will also be seen, calls for the proper construction of the will in question under the facts in evidence. The second clause of the will is as follows: 2. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary 3. Hall, all my property, including real and personal, of Harbison v. James. any and every description whatever, giving her the right to sell and re-invest, as she may desire, any part of the same for her separate use and benefit, and at her death I desire that any portion of my estate remaining undisposed of shall go to my three daughters, Mary Davis, Annie Harbison, and Amelia Wilson. The first branch of this clause, standing alone, would give the wife...
