Williams: Before the Legislative Committee on Towns, Feb; 27, 1889, in Favor of the Incorporation of the Town of Beverly Farms I am aware, of course, that I cannot give you a speech of as high a standard of oratory as that to which you have just listened; you all know I cannot, and I know it as well as anybody in this room. I simply hope you will have patience with me while I proceed to state the facts and reasons that prompt us to petition here for an act of incorporation. I will begin by simply asking you to recall the proposition that is before you. About ninety-five one hundredths of the entire people, numbering about twelve hundred, residing on a tract of territory covering a little over three thousand acres, petition to be incorporated as a separate town. There are two hundred and seventy polls, two hundred and twenty registered voters, of whom all but fifteen reside upon the territory continuously, and these fifteen from six to eight months per year, made up of men engaged in all the ordinary walks of life, and competent to manage town affairs. Their property is valued at from $4,000,000 to $6,500,000, according to the place of residence of the one making the valuation; large enough, in either event, to yield a revenue sufficient to meet all ordinary town expenses. Of three hundred and twenty-eight towns now in the Commonwealth, if Beverly Farms should be incorporated, one hundred and twenty-one will have a smaller population, ninety-one would have a smaller number of polls, and we would have a larger valuation than a...
