Henry B. Carrington, U. S. A., at the Reunion of the Society, at Marietta, Ohio, Sept. 19, 1879. Comrades of the Army of West Virginia: It is well to save for some future historian the record of all facts which marked the outbreak of the American Rebellion. There are times when noiseless work does much to prepare and ensure that more visible and emphatic action which fixes the destiny of a nation or race. Your society aims to secure and record all facts which gave to West Virginia its independence. The national record deals chiefly with the Federal call upon the States for troops and the conduct of those troops. The rescue of West Virginia...
