

School Admission Appeals Code

By Great Britain: Department for Children, Schools and Families

TSO. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, School Admission Appeals Code, Great Britain: Department for Children, Schools and Families, "The School Admission Appeals Code" ("The Code") should be read alongside the "School Admissions Code" and other guidance and law that affect admissions and admission appeals in England. This Code came into force on 10 February 2009 and applies to all appeals heard on or after this date. Where mandatory requirements are imposed by this Code it is stated that relevant bodies 'must' comply with the particular requirement or provision. "The Code" also includes guidelines which the relevant bodies should follow. This Code is primarily aimed at those responsible for making appeal arrangements and for panel members and the clerk to the panel. The following bodies have a statutory duty to act in accordance with this Code; admission authorities, governing bodies, Admission Forums, Schools Adjudicators, Admission Appeal Panel Members. "The Code" deals with two separate categories of admission appeals: appeals by parents and, in certain circumstances by children, against a decision as to the school at which education is to be provided for the child; and, appeals by governing bodies of community or voluntary controlled schools against a decision by the...
